Supporting the future of Canterbury Cathedral

“Hearing the Cathedral alive with the sounds of worship, choral music and the hubbub of human interaction symbolises the central role of Canterbury for the world.”

*- The Most Reverend and Right Honourable Justin Welby
Archbishop of Canterbury*

Canterbury Cathedral is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, recognised for its historic, cultural and spiritual significance since St Augustine's founding mission in 597AD.

We are at the heart of the worldwide Anglican community and a major pilgrimage destination. We are also a popular tourist attraction, welcoming visitors from across the world. From our talented stonemasons and Stained Glass Studio, to our outreach work and our world class choirs, we are committed to conserving, protecting and expanding, ensuring that the Cathedral will continue to be a place of welcome for generations to come.
